

Economic Solvency

Examples of financial solvency could be any of the following:

- Legalized bank statement. Original document with the bank's stamp detailing the average balance, debit, and credit history during the last 6 months.
- Letter from the employing company, copy of salary payment receipts. The letter can include net and gross salary, years of service in the company.
- Certificate of real estate owned by you.
- Retirees, certificate showing the amount and time of retirement.
- Students: academic record, proof of financial support from parents or legal guardian, scholarship certificate if they have them.

Important: All documents presented must be duly legalized and translated into Spanish. Migration does not accept documents in other languages.
